

Dear Folk Meeting participants and friends,

For several years, we have been talking about and researching the possibility of reprinting the green World of Song book which we all know and love. Thanks to collaboration among Folk Meeting Committee members, we now have a solution and are ready to take orders!

We are offering options to order both the regular green, hard-cover edition (8.5" x 5.5") and a large-print, spiral-bound edition (9.5' x 11'). The prices indicated below include shipping and handling.

Please place your order no later than June 1, so that we can finalize our bulk order with the printer by the end of June. Please feel free to forward this note and the order form to family and friends.

If you would like to place an order, please make your check payable to Danebod Folk School, complete the attached order form and mail the form, with your check, to:

Danebod Folk School
Attn: World of Song
140 Danebod Court

If you have questions, please call Joan Jagt at 507-530-2552 or Anita Young at 612-860-8070.
